THE NEW FACE OF KLOSS

Josh Kloss becomes the third generation owner.

Steve Kloss is retiring from Kloss Furniture after 50 years in the furniture business. Josh Kloss will be taking over the family tradition. Josh is the third generation family owner and is looking forward to this new adventure.

The Kloss family began in the retail home furnishings business in 1976. From day one we became known for offering fantastic service on top of low, affordable prices. Under the leadership of Doris Kloss and her son, Steve Kloss, the business continued to grow rapidly until a devastating fire that resulted in a total loss in late 1998. Steve then opened a series of branded stores across the St. Louis area. The Kloss family turned their warehouse into a showroom called The Tin Shed.

Today we are still proud to be family owned with four locations of Kloss Furniture and Mattress 1st and Kloss Outlet Center in O'Fallon, Illinois, Edwardsville, Illinois, Highland, Illinois, and St. Louis, Missouri. Together, we are able to offer our customers low prices and exceptional service. We pride ourselves knowing we have something for everybody.

Josh Kloss and Family

“The advice that my dad gave me is to always have integrity and to do what you say you’re going to do. Your word means everything and if you don’t stick by your word, then you have nothing to live for.”

— Josh Kloss,
Owner/CEO of Kloss Furniture

What is 8-Way Hand-Tied?

Eight-Way Hand-Tied is a traditional upholstery technique where each coil spring is tied by hand in eight directions. This creates even support across the seat, helps prevent sagging, and provides long-lasting comfort.

Because every spring is individually secured, the seating is stronger, more flexible, and more durable than many machine-made alternatives. Unlike pre-assembled spring systems, Eight-Way Hand-Tied springs move independently, adapting to your weight and movement for balanced, responsive support.

Widely regarded as a mark of high-quality furniture, Eight-Way Hand-Tied construction is valued for its durability, comfort, and ability to maintain its shape and support for years.
